Suicide of a Purser at Spezzia.

Genoa, Monday, Suly 5. A melancholy incident occurred a few days go on board the U. S. frigate Cumberland, cently arrived at Speczzia. (our naval station on this coast) from the United States. The Purser, George T. Sawyer, committed suicide about 3 o'clock in the afternoon of the 24th ult., by cutting his throat with a knife. It appeared furing the impurry into the case, that Mr. ? was a respectable and responsible person, that he was a native of the State of Vermont, that he and attained his 65th year, and that his selfdestruction was owing solely to an alienation of mind, occasioned by an unexpected separation from a young and beautiful wife, whom he married a few days before being ordered to sea. His acounts were found to be correct, of course, As you may suppose, the event produced much feeling among the officers and crew, and was occasion of solemn religious services.

Then come Tubercles in the Lungs, disorganization, prostration of the physical powers, and soon the scene closes. That they man not weep when too late, let the treation of the stek be vigislant at the outset. When the first symptoms of Polimonary Disease are manifested administer Dr. Rossass' Syrup of Liverwort, Tar and Canchallagua. That its effects have been all but Canchangua. That its effects have been all but miraculous even in eartenic cases, we have testimony which incredulity itself can scarcely doubt. TRY IT. But first read the evidence. You will find it in the pamphlet in every Agent's hands.
